SHORT STORIES

WORDS AND STYLING: MEG BELLEMORE

A series of novel styles to suit every short-haired girl.

MADE IN THE A.M.

Inspired by Kendall's Versace A/W16 Milan runway look, this is every grunge girl's dream hair and THE uniform for nights that turn into mornings. For extra va-va-voom at the roots, work in a dollop of mousse as you blow-dry. Loosely tong all over, then mist on a dry finishing spray – it'll magically create that must-have wind-swept vibe. Wrap on a DIY rope hair tie, then push the hair framing your face to the sides to keep the look more edgy than boho. A smokey eye is obvs mandatory.
