Curlers are very powerful tools; they hold the ability to be both your best friend and your worst enemy – use the wrong one and you could get a little too close to Sandy in Grease territory (a luscious look, yes, but maybe a bit much when ‘a little bounce’ was the goal). Use the right one though and you’ll be in the land of voluminous Victoria’s Secret-esque waves in no time.

We’ve done the hard work for you (besides the actual curling, of course): here are the six best curlers for polished-but-natural waves.

#1: Silver Bullet City Chic Curling Iron ($69.95, silverbullethair.com.au)

Get ready for the bounciest waves you ever did see (without straying into Toddlers in Tiaras territory, of course) – this 25mm iron strikes the perfect balance between polished and undone, and delivers curls that will actually hold for hours, even if your hair is fine.
