GO WITH CONFIDENCE INTO THE PARTY SEASON WITH THIS LITTLE BLACK BOOK OF BEAUTY TRICKS FROM THOSE IN THE KNOW

by BETTINA TYRRELL

1 SHAKE IT UP

This season, hairstylist Anthony Nader encourages trying a style a little "out of the ordinary". He says, "Take inspiration from the latest Prada runway. If you're sporting a bob, draw a deep side part then apply a serum to keep the hair shape clean and tight to the head. Welcome to your new minimal."

2 "After applying your bases, prime your face with a setting spray then dust on a dry highlighter. The powder will melt onto your skin giving a finish that looks glossy, not greasy."

make-up artist

3 THE RIGHT ROUGE

The hot lipstick shade to add to your arsenal is a warm brick red, says YSL Beauté's director of artistry, Ross Andrewartha: "Orange-based rouges are easy to wear and universally flattering." Pair with a swipe of bronzer to contour and a coral blush on the apples of your cheeks, and you've found your summer-beauty uniform.

"I use a Marc Jacobs powder and a small eyeshadow to set my T-zone. It keeps my make-up in place and absorbs the oil, but not the glow. I call it 'precision powdering'."

5 SPEED STYLE

Not enough time to style a full head of hair? "Massage dry shampoo into your roots to give texture, then add polish to just the parts people see. Take a tong to the top layer and leave the underneath to do its natural thing," advises hairstylist Dee Parker Attwood. Always spritz strands with a heat protector mist before using tools.
