DAILY ESSENTIAL

The one product Katy swears by? It's the humble baby wipe! Besides taking off your make-up without stinging your eyes, you must have them for those ladies' rooms that [are] out of soap - I seem to go into one every day!

Have acne scars. I'm self-conscious about that, so sometimes I wear too much make-up to cover them up.

LIP LOVE

Katy knows how to keep her lips smooth. I use lip scrub every night, so when I wake up, my lips don't feel like they've been on a desert island.

KEEPING IT REAL

Katy is the first to admit that make-up is a huge part of her look. I'm every woman. It takes a village to make me who I am... You don't have to wake up looking like, you know, Gisele Bündchen.

SALON MOMENT

Katy still pops into the local salon for a perm and a chat. ‘There are still places in New York and LA where they have the old-school dryers and can do the old-school styles. They offered me a room in the back, but it was OK. No-one really bothered me - and I heard some good old-school gossip about what was going on in the ‘hood!’

2009

Katy comes off all demure with a ‘20s style ‘do as the 2009 Grammys red carpet, only to refashion 1 1/2 hours later backstage into a fruit hat and cheer outfit!

2011

Katy's become famous for mixing up her hair colours at a moment's notice. She didn't disappoint with this candy pink hue set off by orange lips and winged eyeliner.

2011

Katy surprised us with a less out-there look, sporting curly locks and a hint of nude pink lipstick at the premiere of then-hubby Russell Brand's movie Arthur.

2012

Saló again and in mourning? Hardly! A pop lip colour and a blue nose is Katy's way of telling the world that her love of all things beauty is unwavering.
