GOING GAGA

The red carpet beauty looks that fast became our favourites

Gaga's pout does the talking at the SAG awards.

Her Grammys look had enviable grunge appeal.

25TH ANNUAL SCREEN ACTORS GUILD AWARDS

"I love this, as the focus is on her statement lip where she is incorporating a somewhat 1990s visible, slightly darker lip liner," says Connor.

The knockout pout was accompanied by a Dior haute couture gown, which was undoubtedly elegant, but not even its high, leggy side-split could take our eyes off her winning hair and makeup look.

MAKEUP

Connor's tip for staying power is to choose a matte lipstick, which will outlast any gloss formula, or a liquid to matte lipstick, which will also last through the longest of ceremonial events. "Opt for a slightly stronger lip line to make lips more defined and recreate that '90s vibe!" says Connor.

HAIR

For tricks on Gaga's hairstyle, the lazy girls will be happy. "The hairstyle is a great option for when your hair is on the dirtier side so it stays better and is more manageable – the perfect style for when you can't be bothered washing your hair!" says Connor.

61ST ANNUAL GRAMMY AWARDS

"This is my favourite of the three! A sexy cat eye, which is very rock chic. The liner is smudged and looks almost slept in," says Connor.

We couldn't agree more ... not only did Gaga look amazing, accessorising her silver Celine dress with diamonds, she topped it off with hair and makeup that oozed effortless rock-girl chic.

MAKEUP

"Try using a soft, thick black liner on the outer corners of the top and bottom of the eyes and really smudge it out, trying not to be too neat. Help further create a smoky cat eye effect by winging the liner out slightly on the outer corners which will elongate and lift the eyes," says Connor.

HAIR

What's not to love about this simple style. "Gaga's hair has an undone, almost beachy vibe," says Connor, which seems to counteract the formal tone of the dress, but totally worked. "To recreate this look you simply could use either a wand or straightener to lightly wave the hair, focusing on the mid lengths, ensuring you leave the ends straight." Don't worry if you accidentally over-curl the hair, "simply grab your straightener to lightly tap over the ends to relax the wave," says Connor.
