TREND

The new way to rock retro
'60s

From risk-takers like Rihanna rocking a pinned-back style to Allison's bouncy blowdry and Victoria's mod-era beehive, these A-listers know where it's at for a fresh take on the '60s. "The British '60s invasion is in full swing," confirms celeb hairstylist Anthony Nader of RAW hair salon in Sydney. So who better to go to for expert advice on getting it right?

WEAR WITH...

"Hair clips are going to be fun with this trend, so invest in a classic, wide black clip and position it as a feature," advises Anthony. We also love a ladylike winged eyeliner to perfect the '60s feel.

TOP TIPS

- 1 "Embrace the beehive bump on your crown for that '60s vibe," Anthony says. "If your hair is too soft, use a medium-hold hairspray, backcomb roots and smooth a section of hair over the top."
- 2 "Keep the front section around your face smooth and sleek. This is what's going to give you the illusion of body at the crown."
- 3 "Opt for longer layers throughout your hair as you want it to swing, not sit flat."

TIP
Rollers make a bouncy '60s do a cinch to DIY. Don't have any? Just blowdry hair with a round brush and curl ends under as you go.
