How to do...
TUX-INSPIRED MANICURE

I am wearing a gown but my nails are wearing tuxedos,' tweeted Zoey just before she walked the red carpet at the Golden Globes recently sporting a gorgeous Prada dress and black tie-ready nails!

- 1 Prepare the nails by filing, shaping and applying a clear base coat.
- 2 Apply two coats of thick white matte nail polish, allowing the product to dry completely between each coat.
- 3 Use a nail art pen to carefully draw a bow shape (two inverted triangles with their points touching) just above the base of the nail and then add three dots above it. Instant chic!

2008

Zoey stepped it up a notch with fluttery falsies and a bejewelled headband at the premiere of her flick Yes Man, which also starred Jim Carrey.

2010

Zoey was the epitome of festival chic on stage with her band She & Him, with loose waves, glowing skin and the essential muso accessory – a tambourine!

2011

This dramatic doll-like look of daring lashes, thick, winged liner and a pretty, tousled side chignon garnered Zoey plenty of kudos from beauty aficionados.

2012

Zoey secured her place on the Golden Globes best-dressed list with her retro-glam, heavy cat-eye make-up, while her fringe was styled into a '60s-inspired 'do.

'You guys, I have to tell you about the most amazing mascara I started using recently! It is the Max Factor 2000 Calorie Mascara. Funny name aside, since you definitely will not be eating this, you have to try this immediately! Over the past 10-15 years I have tried numerous mascaras and it wasn't until I tried this one that I finally feel like I have found the one!'

'As you all know, I love switching up my nail colour to fit my mood! I think the colour of your nails can really express how you're feeling and can completely finish off a look. Right now, I'm really into red nails! Red is such a classic colour... so feminine and sexy. It's so timeless you can literally match it with any outfit.'
