It's official... Swedish superstars, Make Up Store were Duchess of Cambridge, Kate Middleton's makeup of choice for her recent royal nuptials. Make Up Store are delighted and to celebrate are offering customers "Get the Royal Look" sessions with professional makeup artists. Head make up artist, Maria Gabriel gave her tips on how to recreate Kate's timeless elegant look: Apply Microshadows in Spruce and Casual for a pigment-rich, long-lasting, true colour finish. For a more intense look pat colour on to the eyelids or for a fun take blend with Make Up Store Mixing Liquid to create a waterproof eyeliner. Kate also used Micronized Compact Powder in Translucent for a flawless light-reflective finish.

Skindinavia Makeup Finishing Spray keeps makeup looking fresher for longer and gives it ultimate staying power. Long gone are the days of the 70s setting sprays, this space-age formulation cools skin to an optimum temperature to maintain the integrity of makeup so it won't melt, dry out, become shiny, crease, clump or cake. Each active ingredient is nano-encapsulated so it's time-released throughout the day.

CELEB-RATING COLLABORATIONS

Minx nails has, for the first time, released two new Minx celebrity nail stylist collections: Minx Professional for Lisa Logan, and Minx Professional for Marian Newman. Launched in 2008, Minx is the patented solid nail coating that has exploded onto the beauty scene with celebrities such as Beyoncé, Rihanna, Lady Gaga, Katy Perry and Kim Kardashian showing off their Minxed fingers and toes. Each line has eight new designs, and are the first of what will be many new collaborations between Minx and the most accomplished and skilled nail stylists from around the globe.

Minx custom-designed nail foils for Australian fashion designer Lisa Maree at RAFW recently. The Minx Lusion was applied to the nail and then, using the new Minx layering technique, a sheer design is placed over the top for an amazing iridescent finish that catches the light and gives a whole new dimension to Minx layer designs. Layering can be achieved with any shade underneath, be it white, black, silver or gold and then a patterned design placed over the top to give the overall look a unique, custom-designed twist.
