YOUR GUIDE TO DAILY
GLAMOUR

Alexa Chung exudes her own brand of Brit cool with laidback locks and flicked-out liner.

LOVE HER LOOK

ALEXA CHUNG

Forget playing it straighty-180: embrace your kinky side with textured tresses or soft subtle waves.

1 Tame the mane. Want the secret to fuzz-free curls? It's all about eradicating that halo of frizz with a hydrating styling oil, serum or anti-frizz lotion. Out of product? A small amount of conditioner will also work. For Old Hollywood glamour, use a triple-barrelled iron for retro-chic waves.

2 Don't be afraid to make waves. Stylist Byron Williams likes to enhance Nicole Richie's natural waves with an iron. To get her look, wrap small sections around a curling rod and finish with hairspray.

3 Get fully pumped. A-list coiffeur Peter Gray adds light oil to Michelle Williams's scalp to create lift and dimension. "It takes it from being a helmet to sexy and feminine." For a different fast track to laidback beachy texture, apply mousse to wet hair, scrunch and let air-dry, or use a diffuser.

TREND ALERT

BRIGHTENING

When you live in a sunburnt country, uneven skin tone and dark spots (the result of excessive melanin production caused by too much sun) can be inevitable. Help reverse the damage with specialist skincare that zeroes in on pigmentation.
