BIGGEST BEAUTY SECRET "A lot of women overlook concealer," says Mario. "It really makes a difference if you get those areas of darkness, or veiny areas, with concealer rather than foundation. For people with spots, cover the specific areas – the effect is so much better than a thick foundation." TOP TIP Blend away harsh lines. "I see a lot of extreme contouring. This does not suit most women." HIS FAVE PRODUCTS 1. Tom Ford Shade & Illuminate $110 [to contour].

2. BeautyBlender $30. 3. Benefit They're Real! Mascara $42.

BIGGEST BEAUTY SECRET "I love to work with the beach wave," says Scotty. Split the hair like you're going to do pigtails, then wrap in buns away from your face and pin them up with large open French pins. "I call it Princess Leia buns." By the time you've done your makeup, you'll have a relaxed wave. TOP TIP Brunettes need "more texture, definition and product", whereas "a little bit goes a long way" on blonde hair.

HIS FAVE PRODUCTS 1. Bumble And Bumble Surf Spray $39. 2. Premium Pin Company 2in Fringe Pins $25.95.

JOYCE BONELLI

CELEB FOLLOWING Kris Jenner, Salma Hayek, Nicki Minaj

BIGGEST BEAUTY SECRET "Swap your moisturiser

for a tinted version, then apply foundation," Joyce says. "The result is perfectly even skin. Pat it all down with a BeautyBlender." TOP TIP If you do want to fake-tan your face, use a brush to apply. "This will ensure it's evenly buffed in. Use a brush for instant tanner, too, as you can wash it off straight away if it doesn't blend well." HER FAVE PRODUCTS

1. Lancome Hypnose Mascara $52. 2. Giorgio Armani Luminous Silk Foundation $95. 3. La Prairie Concealer Foundation SPF 15 $290.
