Shake up your style and swap polished lengths for sexy texture, maximum movement and easy up-dos. By Lucy Adams

the elegant bun

WHERE TO WEAR: A summer wedding.
HOW TO GET IT: "The key to mastering this look lies in the matt texture and wispy fly-aways," says Marie Cain, L'Oréal Professionnel's session stylist from Head Studio, Perth. She adds that it's a great alternative for second-day hair, or for freshly washed strands that are a little unruly. If you've decided to shampoo, apply a mousse through damp strands before roughly drying. For extra grip, Cain likes to add a layer of sea salt spray and dry it into the hair again. Then, using your fingers, rake your strands back into a ponytail, securing them at the nape of your neck and keeping the elastic loose to give the style its effortless look. Next, twist your lengths loosely around the elastic to form a bun and hold in place with fringe pins. Set your style with a light mist of hairspray.

PRO TIP: "Accessories can take your style to the next level - giving it character and personality. But be sure to pair them with relaxed hair to keep the look cool, rather than prissy," warns Cain.

TOP PICKS: Boost body with Redken Full Effect 04 All-Over Nourishing Mousse, $29.95. Secure with Premium Pin Company 999 Fine Fringe Pins, $22.95 for 120g, and a spritz of L'Oréal Paris Elmett Satin Hairspray, $9.95. ▶
