

VOGUE

Victoria Beckham is the central figure on the cover of the November issue of Vogue. She is wearing a strapless, sheer, tan-colored bodice with thin horizontal bands, paired with a high-waisted, deep red skirt that features a large silver buckle at the waist and a draped, knotted front. She is also wearing long, dark red gloves. Her hair is dark and styled in loose waves, and she has bright red lipstick. The background is a plain, light color.
