Your best blowout! Here are some expert tips and tricks to get a fresh-out-of-the-salon style at home—whatever your hair type!

- 1 Fine and straight: create body.
Apply volumising mousse to wet hair, flip your head over and blow-dry until hair is just damp, says Denine Smith, stylist at New York's Warren-Tricomi Salon. Finish drying using a large, round brush to add body.
- 2 Wavy or curly: prevent frizz.
Dry hair in small sections from the nape of your neck upwards. Then apply frizz-fighting cream to ensure it stays smooth, says celeb stylist Mark Townsend. Lock in the style by flat-ironing your hair, section by section. Frizz is caused by dryness, so hydrate strands with a mask once a week.
- 3 Coarse: practise smooth moves.
Apply a softening cream from roots to ends while hair is damp. Use a dryer with a comb attachment, says celeb stylist Dickey: it straightens the hair as it dries, so a flat iron won't have to do all the work.

TREND ALERT

MIND THE GAP!

Gappy teeth were once seen as a flaw. These days, stars embrace their kooky dental differences.

Lauren Hutton kicked off the trend decades ago, and Madonna, Lara Stone, Anna Paquin and Vanessa Paradis are among those celebs renowned for their spaced-out smiles. We say grin and bare it!
