BLAKE LIVELY

- 1 Apply a curl-defining cream to damp ends. Use a wide-tooth comb to distribute, then blowdry using a round brush.
- 2 Part hair down the centre using a tail comb. Mist tresses with a styling gel, then tousle for movement.
- 3 Take a small section of hair from one side of the face and, directing backward, wrap around a 25mm curling iron. Hold tong vertically for 15 seconds.
- 4 Release ringlet and secure against the head using two clips. Continue creating curls until you reach the nape of the neck, then repeat process on the other side of the face.
- 5 Once hair has cooled, pull out clips and comb out. Mist all over with hairspray, comb through, then repeat for bounce. Use a boar-bristle brush to style back and to the side like Blake's.
