lovinggirlylife You guys probably know that I love Korean beauty products, and these masks by OMG! are no exception ✨ I love that there are SO many different options and some of them come in a little pouch ready for multimasking. I'm loving the Detox Bubbling Mask - you can really feel how it's cleaning out your pores ☐☐☐ It's just the perfect thing to do on a weekend or after a long day at work ☆ oh and how cute is the headband? 😊
