DRAW THE LINE

The most popular cosmetic of the season? Black eyeliner. Make-up artists used it to create feline flicks at Oscar de la Renta, winged eyes at Anna Sui and rock'n'roll smudging with painted-on lashes at Fendi.

top tip:

While some of these looks are reserved strictly for the runway, experiment with a winged look by taking a pen-like liner and stamping three dots diagonally upward from the outer corner of your eye, then connect. Or, for a slept-in look, try a kohl texture and use your fingertips to blend.

UP & AWAY

From beehives and French twists to tousled '50s-inspired styles at Max Mara and Victoria Beckham's bun-ponytail hybrid, the effortless up-do was spotted in all four fashion capitals.

top tip: Adding grip to strands is key to keeping these looks in place. Before attempting to re-create one, apply a malleable mousse and a texturizing cream to help boost volume, sans stiffness.

tool kit: 4 PREMIUM PIN COMPANY 999 Premium Bobby Pins in 2" Silver 250g, $25.25. 5 TRESemmé Salon Finish Extra Control Mousse, $7.99. 6 VO5 Smoothly Does it Frizz Free Creme, $6.99. □
